

Riccardo Wolfgang

(b. Como 1976) lives and works in London as a fine art and commercial photographer.

EXHIBITIONS

May 2016. Passages by Riccardo Wolfgang. Italian Consulate London

Passages

DIC 2014 ITALIAN EMBASSY LONDON.

STRUCTURES

The Italian Embassy is pleased to present the first solo show of the Italian photographer Riccardo Wolfgang. This new exhibition will take place from December 3rd and 4th 2014 and showcase twenty black and white cotton prints, from his series STRUCTURES.

2013 05 FL GALLERY, MILAN

DJ'S CHAPTER 1, MILAN

GROUP SHOW: SELECTION OF DJ'S CHAPTER 1, THE IMMIGRANTS ARTISTS AT WORK AND PEOPLE.

Collective Exhibition

SERIES

Passage - definition

The action or process of moving through or past somewhere on the way from one place to another.

This photographic series by London-based photographer Riccardo Wolfgang is an analogy of the passages that shape our lives.

The artist successfully captured this concept by creating aesthetically attractive images with a profound meaning.

"It's very difficult to know what we want, because, living only one life, we can neither compare it with our previous lives nor perfect it in our lives to come", said Milan Kundera.

Perhaps that's why 'passages' in life are so important. A change in our state of mind, a change of scenery, a special encounter, a change of country... they are all passages that divide our life in micro-lives.

New sensations that we can compare to the previous one(s), so as to gain a better understanding of our desires, expand our visual vocabulary, enrich our life rhythm.

Human beings are a work in progress, in constant evolution. We think highly of the past, we obsess over with the future, but it's often the overlooked value of transitions, tipping points, intersections, that push us forward. The images in this series dig deep into these 'tunnels and passages' in our daily lives and around the world, looking for hints of how they are experienced.

Size and Editions:

420 x 594 mm / 16.5 x 23.4 in. Edition of 10

841 x 1189 mm / 33.1 x 46.8 in. Edition of 5

